PERSONAL .- Mr. J. A. Desportes, one of the editors of the Wignsboro' News, is now on a flying visit to Charleston. Any communications for him may be addressed to the care of the newspaper ad vertising agency of Walker, Evans & Cogswell.

ALABAMA CHICKEN FIGHTS. -Some of our neighbors in Alabama are sufficiently "reconstructed" to indulge in some of the pastimes of former days. "A main" of cocks will be pitted in Mobile on the 15th instant, and one in selma on the 15th of April. Thirty-one chickens will be shown in each main-$250 each fight, and $2:00 the odd. Great sport is expected.

THE "VHITE FAWN" is here. 'All day yesterday the bulky paraphernalia of the piece were in process of transportation to our theatre, and to-night the gorgeous speciacle will burst in all its glory upon our view. It is impossible to give a description of the "White Fawn." We can only say it is prepared with great luxu: y of scenic display, accompanied by singing from siren hps, dancing unsurpassed; in fact, there is everything that art ean bring to delight the senses. There will be a jam. Go early.

Sons of the Covenant .- The Independent Order of "B'nni E'rith" or Sons of the Covenant profese holding a bal masque on the Fea t of Purim, which will be celebrated on the 25th of March, at the Mills House. We predict that this affair will be a great success, a. it is to be held for the special purpose of realizing a fund for the benefic of the widows and orphans who are beneficiaries of this society, and we expect that there will be a large concourse of the sons of Judes, and a multitude o dark-eved "Les Belle Juires" present.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT .- A lady, while crossing at the corner of Middle and Minority streets, day be fore yesterday, was run over by one of a number of drays which were passing at the time at a rapid pace. She was so much injured that she had to be carried into an adjoining house by some colored persons, who rendered every possible assistance. As soon as she sufficiently recovered from her insensibility she was conveyed in a carriage to her rest dence elsewhere, where she lies in a critical condition. The drayman, it is stated, drove on and paid

ROSSINI'S "STABAT MATER."-This is the most pathetic of all those mediaval hymns, whose soft, sad cadence has been so successfully echoed by the distinguished mastro of he Italian school of music. On account of its inherent difficulties and the rare vocal talent required for its proper rendition it has seldom been performed in this city. After an in terval of many years, however, it is announced for the oratorio at St. Mary's Church to-night, and will doubtless, attract an immense audience. Persons who have had the pleasure of attending the rehearsals of the musical club by which it is to be produced, and of which Mrs. Barbot is the directness, considertly predict that the performance this evening will be a complete success.

THE LOYAL LEAGUE.-It is reported that a meeting of this political organization is to be held to-night, at the Military Hall, in pursuance of instructions from Washington, for the purpose of a better and more effective consolidation of the forces in anticipation of future necessity-that an earnest effort is to be made to vitalize the membership and increase its ranks. Furth r, that it is to be made a State organization, and that application will be made to the Legislature for a charter. Other matters of local bearing will be submitted for consideration, all of which, rumor says, look to a fresh gathering of the clans, in order that the little speck which is seen | London, twenty-nine years ago, and was in use for in the distant horizon may not overshadow them

THE ORGAN AT ST. PHILIP's.-The organ at St. Philip's Chu.ch, which has been undergoing rebuilding for the past four months, at the hands of Mr. John Baker, an experienced organ builder of this city, will be completed by Friday night, when a public test of it will be made by Professor Ruddock, the organist of the church, and other organists of the city. The organ was originally built by Gray, of many years, and not until 1953 were any repairs needed, when they were made .y Mr. Appleby, of the concern of Warren & Appleby, of Boston, who COLUMBIA ITEMS .- Major Davis has leased built the Circular Church organ destroyed by the his new hotel to Messrs, Badenhop & Gorman, of last great fire. Eight new stops have been added by Mr. Baker, which increase their number to thirtyfour. There are two octaves of pedals and four couplings, gr at and swell, choir and swell, great and pedal, choir and pedal. The architecture of the or an is Corinthian; and is in keeping with the Thompson have been appointed magistrates for church, and has been built in accordance with drawings by Louis Barbot, Esq. Its tone is full of power, Governor Scott has pardoned Dallas Jefferson and purity and softness. The rebuilding has been done at an expensa of about $3500, furnished by the munificent liberality of James T. Welsman, Esq., one of the vestrymen. The greatest credit is due to William B. Johnston, Esq., has resigned the of- Mr. Baker for the careful and scientific manuer in which he has made the changes in the musical and mechanical arrang ment of this fine organ, and its completion is an evidence of the fact that there is skill of various kinds in our city, that if properly appreciated would soon develope itself. At the trial on Friday night the public are at liberty to attend.

PACIFIC GUANO.

THIS GUANO DIFFERS FROM PEREVIAN Guano simply in the relative proportions of the same elements of fertility.

Its use during the past four years for the culture of cotton and four has given to it a character for standard excellence unsampassed by genuine Peruvian Guano, and where seaseds of drought untervene, a produces a large increate of crops.

The price at where this Guano is placed as so much below that of Peruvian Guano, as to constitute it an object of material importance to southern Agricalture.

Agricu.ture. enable it to furnish a Guano of the highest value at the lowest possible cost to consumer and the highest interest of the company is recognized in this policy.

The Company locks to large sales, small profits and a permanent trade for compensation on capital
